

Updates on Resources and Employer Training

Resources pursuant to EDC 22325 (1/3)

- Education Code section 22325 requires CalSTRS, at least annually, identify and provide Resources that interpret and clarify the applicability of creditable compensation and creditable service laws
- Official Resources are designated as such on CalSTRS.com under Employers > Tools and Guidance > Employers

Resources pursuant to EDC 22325 (2/3)

- Employers must stay informed of the law, changes in the law, revocations of Resources, new Resources and Resources that supersede a previous Resource
- To receive a notification, you may subscribe to email updates on CalSTRS.com
- Subscribers are responsible for updating their contact information

Resources pursuant to EDC 22325 (3/3)

- The Resources take precedence over advisory letters, but do not take precedence over the law
- If compensation reported in accordance with the Resources in effect at the time the compensation is reported is later determined to have been reported in error, any resulting overpayment shall be deemed a CalSTRS error

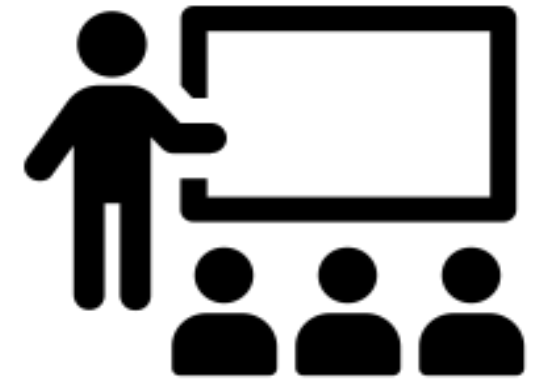

Employer Training

Visit the Employer Learning Center for new or updated content

The 2023-24 training calendar will be released in two parts

We are resuming in-person training opportunities

Questions?

EmployerTraining@CalSTRS.com

- support with training materials
- requests for training
- questions about Teachers' Retirement Law